POPULATION HIGHLIGHTS

On December 31, 2005, the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, Division of Juvenile Justice (DJJ), (formerly the California Youth Authority (CYA)), had 6,685 youths under its jurisdiction – a 12 percent decrease from 7,629 youths on December 31, 2004. The number of youths in institutions decreased by 12 percent from 3,681 to 2,999, while the number of parolees decreased during the same time period by 13 percent, from 4,040 to 3,513.

During calendar year 2005, a total of 906 youths were newly admitted to DJJ institutions, 810 from the juvenile courts and 96 from the criminal courts. Of the criminal court commitments, 6 were direct commitments to the DJJ and 90 were commitments to the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, Adult Division, sent to the DJJ to serve their sentences.

Juvenile court commitments in 2005 decreased by 3 percent over 2004 commitments, while criminal court commitments (including the Adult Division cases) increased by 71 percent. Direct criminal court commitments (no Adult Division cases) were twice as many as in 2004 (from 3 to 6).

As a result of parole revocation, 896 parolees were returned to DJJ institutions. During 2004, there were 861 parole violators returned. This results in a 4 percent increase.

Direct releases to DJJ parole from institutions showed a 25 percent decrease, from 2,362 in 2004 to 1,781 in 2005.

The average length of stay in DJJ institutions was 22.4 months for males paroled in 2005, three months less than the 25.5 months in 2004. The length of stay for females paroled in 2005 was 22.2 months, two months longer than the 19.8 months for those released in 2004.

The average amount of time spent on parole for those leaving parole during 2005 was 20.9 months, virtually the same as the 20.6 months for those departing in 2004.
